

Championship Rules

Overview

- End-of-season championship tournament - free to participate (referee fee only).
- Invitation-only event.

Qualification

- Division winners from each location receive an automatic invitation.
- Remaining spots are at-large bids selected by the XFF committee based on: W/L records, strength of wins, point differential, strength of location, XFF computer rankings.

Roster & Eligibility

- Teams may only use players on their official roster.
- Players who participated in multiple locations must choose ONE team for championships.
- Players cannot join an already-eliminated team for championships.
- Government-issued ID may be checked before the first game.